Premiere: Brooklynn's "Friends" Video Is A Beautiful, Dark, Twisted Fantasy

Watch the video / Mar 17, 2013

Soul singer Brooklynn believes firmly in her art. The Atlanta-based singer has recently been collaborating with producer Neo Constructive, who served as Lady Gaga's music director.

And today (Mar. 17), she is releasing the video for her new single "Friends." The visual offers a dark and eerie tale as Brooklynn crosses about a perilous love that can never turn into a friendship as their ghost-faced men surround her in bed. The craquel serves as an artistic clash between horror and fantasy.

"Friends" appears on Brooklynn's newly-released self-titled EP, and was produced by Neo Constructive and Adam LaRocca. Watch the beautiful, dark, twisted visual above and top the track here. — Ricky Rosario
